You will not make a mistake when booking Capitol Steps to perform at your event. They are definitely entertaining, hilarious and a pleasure to work with. Our attendees continue to rave about them from previous performances!

Kindly comment on your experience working with Eagles Talent.

It was a wonderful experience working with Eagles Talent, especially with Ann Rubin. She was extremely proactive in sending the preliminary information needed to make the performance a success. She was also always available and attentive to our needs, along with providing excellent customer service!
